3RD ANNUAL BETHEL WINTER CARNIVAL THIS WEEK END

At a meeting at the Norseman Inn Tuesday evening final plans were made for the forth-coming Bethel Winter Carnival week-end.

The slam bang week end will start with a spaghetti supper at the American Legion Hall.

Next at seven o'clock, the bonfires atop both ski areas and Doc Hudson "chomping at the bit" to get his firework display underway. At eight-thirty the ski movies and coronation at Odeon Hall with five of the Bethel area's bux and attractive girls promoting tickets for the event.

Saturday at 11:30 a. m. family races and costume parades at both ski areas will more than liven up things.

The Teen Age Snow Flake Frolic with free admission under the guidance of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Raynes promises fun for the kids at Crescent Park School, Saturday evening at 7:30.

Meanwhile at 8:30 Saturday night the adults will be stomping to the music of Malcolm Smith at the William Bingham Gym. Tickets can be bought at the door. The informal atmosphere highlighted with many door prizes—large decorative ski posters from many ski areas will create an evening of fun for the folks.

Sunday will be a rise and shine early day with Church services at 7:45 at both areas followed by free pancake and sausage breakfasts.

The family race runoffs at Mt. Abram at 10 a. m. will be fun to watch.

At 11 a. m. Louis Sargent and his crew will have parked cars on the special parking areas being set up at the Hill Chapman farm and snowmobile rally will be a go-go reality. The trophies are unbelievable and this will be a fun event for the whole family—not only those who participate. A hot dog concession will be set up at the location.

HONORED ON 25th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Smith were guests of honor at a party to observe of their 25th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heath in Lovell. They received many lovely gifts. Those attending included the guests of honor, the host and hostess, Barbara Mallett, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Lovejoy, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Springer.

BETHEL SNOW TWISTERS

Gather—The above scene on the meadow north of Vernon Street last Sunday took place when skimobile enthusiasts met with nearly forty machines to form the 2 o'clock Skimobile Parade. The event, held to publicize this week end's Bethel Winter Carnival, attracted no little attention as it traveled the sidewalks up and down Main Street.

ROZOS TO BE SPEAKER AT CHAMBER MEETING NEXT TUESDAY EVENING

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce will meet at the West Parish Congregational Church on Tuesday, March 7, at 6:30 p. m. Supper will be served.

Speaker of the evening will be Mike Rozos, Recreational Director of the Norway-South Paris area. Reports will be made by the Winter Carnival Committee and the nominating committee. This should be an extremely interesting meeting, and all members, and interested parties, are urged to attend.

A group of more than 20 Boy Scouts of Troop 585 and their leaders made a trip on Farwell Mountain last Friday afternoon. They returned to their homes Saturday afternoon. Those making the hike were Greg Cummings, Bobby Howe, Steve Blake, Danny Vogt, Jimmy Thurston, Bob Colford, Bozo Merrill, Chuck Smith, Franklin Burris, Roger Buck, David Garey, Jimmy Swan, Mark Colby, Dennis Colby, Randy Littlefield, Kim Parker, Tommy Howe, Andy Cummings (Cub Scout), Bobby Stevens, Leo Hicks, John Hicks, and Rex Cummings. Bud Howe and Blackie Cummings accompanied the group.

WARREN MILLER SKI FILM AT ODEON HALL, FRIDAY

If you are a skier—or if you like good motion picture entertainment—set aside the evening of Friday, March 3 as a "must" date.

Warren Miller's production "Around the World on Skis" will be presented at 8:30 p. m. at Odeon Hall, Bethel.

Ski fans will thrill to action sequences involving Stein Eriksen, Canada's Ernie McCullough, the late Buddy Werner and Junior Bonouns of the United States and Ichii Ban of Japan—all performing at their best on the top slopes here and abroad.

"Around the World on Skis" will be of interest to the non-skier from the travelogue point of view. Miller's filming efforts took him to New Mexico, Idaho, Colorado, California, Vermont and Massachusetts in the United States and to France, Switzerland, Hawaii and Japan. The popularity of Miller's films is unquestioned—more than 100,000 persons view them annually, and "Around the World on Skis" is one of his best.

The Bethel Winter Carnival and the Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce will sponsor Miller's film.

Tickets are available from the Carnival Queen candidates.

Leonel L'Heureux and Thomas Hodgkins, teachers at the Crescent Park School, spent last week vacationing in Florida.

BETHEL ELECTION - TOWN MEETING MONDAY, MARCH 6

The polls will be open at the Bethel Fire Station next Monday, March 6, from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. for balloting in the election of local officers. Contests this year are for: selectman and assessor for three years, Harold Clukey and Rodney Eames; directors of Maine School Administrative District #44, Mrs. Musa S. Brown, Theodore Chadbourne and Robert Jackson. Bethel is entitled to elect two school directors in this election. Mrs. Violet Bennett has no opposition for the office of Town Clerk.

In the race for the selectman's post, Mr. Eames, an employee of the Portland Pipeline Corp., is seeking re-election to a second three-year stint on the board, while Mr. Clukey, proprietor of Bosserman's Pharmacy, is making his initial try for town office.

In the three-way race for two positions on the board of school directors, Mr. Chadbourne, the incumbent, is seeking election to a three year term. Previous to the formation of S. A. D. #44 in August of 1965 he had served as a member of the Bethel School Committee for several years. Mrs. Brown has been employed in the school lunch program in Bethel, and has worked part-time in the office of the Bethel Citizen. Mr. Jackson is the pastor of the Bethel Church of the Nazarene and has served as a substitute teacher in the S. A. D. #44 schools.

At the business meeting starting at 8 p. m., the voters will act on the remaining 56 articles of the warrant for the annual meeting.

While many of the articles appear to be routine and the recommendations of the local budget committee are usually adopted, the voters are free to decrease or increase appropriations of the accounts if in their judgment such changes are necessary.

Article 12 should engender considerable discussion as it would, if passed favorably, replace existing Bethel Zoning Ordinances with an entirely new code. A public hearing on this proposed ordinance was held on Feb. 29 with a small attendance due to a stormy night and/or public apathy. (Maps of the proposed areas in town are shown on pages six and seven.)

The article on the acceptance of the Bethel Water District was included with the hope that action would be possible at the annual meeting, but it appears that a decision on this can not be made. Probably action on this item will have to be made at a special meeting later on in the year.

In other articles Bethel town officers seek permission of the voters to appoint a Tree Warden and an Electrical Inspector, and to have the authority to convey a part of the town's real estate near the Town Garage to a private owner.

Extension of the sewer line on Paradise Road is caught under Article 55. Prior natural drainage in that area makes the use of septic tanks difficult.

Permission of the town to remove the Bethel Air Park is a carry-over of the late Lt. Col. Sidney Dyke (USAF Ret.) will be sought. Col. Dyke lost his life in

NEWS COMMENTATOR TO SPEAK AT FARM AND HOME BANQUET, ORONO, MARCH 28

An analysis of seven leaders who have shaped the world will be given by veteran news commentator Paul Niven at the annual Farm and Home Week banquet on the University of Maine campus in Orono on Tuesday, March 28.

Mr. Niven, who was with CBS for 18 years before joining the National Educational Television Network, will recount anecdotes and analyze the personalities of Presidents Johnson, Kennedy, Eisenhower and Truman, Winston Churchill, Nikita Khrushchev, and former Vice President Nixon.

Sharing the speaking program with Mr. Niven at the 6:30 p. m. banquet in the West Commons will be Gov. Kenneth M. Curtis and U. of M. President Edwin Young.

A Brunswick native, Mr. Niven has covered the top news stories of the past two decades from the important news centers of the world: Washington, Moscow, London, Paris and Saigon.

He covered the American tours of Soviet Premier Khrushchev and Deputy Premiers Mikoyan and Kozlov. He interviewed President Kennedy aboard his campaign plane; Nixon aboard a Soviet boat on a Siberian lake during his visit to Russia; and Khrushchev at diplomatic receptions in Moscow.

Niven once sat at the feet of Winston Churchill and conducted an interview using one of the earliest tape recorders; and he climbed to the top of a Rangoon pagoda in his bare feet to interview Premier U Nu of Burma for Edward R. Murrow's "See It Now" program.

While serving as chief of the Moscow Bureau of CBS News in 1953 Niven was expelled from the Soviet Union when Red authorities took exception to a CBS dramatic program dealing with the death of Stalin. He returned the next year to cover Nixon's tour.

He later covered the Kennedy-Nixon presidential campaign and participated in one of their historic debates. He reported from the White House when Kennedy was assassinated and from the LBJ ranch in Texas on Christmas day a month later.

In 1960 Mr. Niven became the first full-time correspondent from NET. His first NET series, "The President's Men," consisted of interviews with members of the President's cabinet and staff. The series was widely acclaimed. Newsweek called it the "best of the three networks" and "The success of the series is due in large measure to Niven's interviewing technique."

On air crash in Northwest Bethel last April. He had long been active in local aviation and had recently been manager of the local field.

An Eastern Musical Festival will be held Palm Sunday, March 19, at the Congregational Church. The combined choirs are from five churches: West Bethel, Locke Mills, Congregational, Catholic and Methodist.

It is said that you can take the pulse of the country but not the country out of the box, a phrase I can attest to, because, in a letter of trying I have never expected to become thoroughly satisfied.

For my friends in the High-lands, as the area goes, and I am a confirmation of what you say, as the area goes, by the fact that the area is doing better than the area.

COMMENT

Maine people should, especially at this time of year, take an active interest in their local town affairs. It would be an advantage if they made it a 12-month habit but presumably that would be too much to ask. Many citizens of Bethel, like countless other communities, are inclined to treat government on the local level the same as some treat their relatives—they only pay attention to them when something goes wrong or they want something—or both.

Many appear to forget when they accuse municipal officials of being spendthrifts, or worse, that they granted them the power to spend that money. Perhaps the accusers were just too busy to spare a few hours of town meeting the first Monday in March, but they are among the first to "kick" when the tax bills are received. Those of them that have the panacea for all the town's ills fall strangely silent during January and February, perhaps in fear that someone will suggest that they run for town office.

Strange as it may seem, if someone gets into office that you don't like, you probably have only yourself to blame. If there are ordinances proposed that you don't approve of, you have every right to oppose them if you feel that they are wrong or to defer action on them if adequate explanation is not given.

It is probably true that local officials heed the advice of the late Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt when she said: "Do what you feel in your heart to be right—for you'll be criticized anyway. You'll be damned if you do, and damned if you don't." And as someone once added, "Frequently by the same people."

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Smith and Candace were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hutchins and family in honor of the Smiths' 25th wedding anniversary. A buffet supper was served and gifts presented. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills and family.

Tony Butters celebrated his 5th birthday Feb. 24 with a party at his home in the afternoon. Those attending the party were Bruce Gaudin, Tamara Carson, Annmarie Saunders, Jeff, Fred and Juliana Hutchins, Mary and Candy McKee, Brenda and Christine Mills, Donald, Janet, and Joseph Mrs. Byron Tibbitts and the honored guest.

BETHEL AND VICINITY

Miss Gertrude Waldron returned to her studies at the University of Maine Sunday after spending the week end at the home of her parents.

Miss Barbie Douglas, a freshman at Nason College, was one of the candidates chosen for carnival queen. The night of the coronation she was in the court.

Bethel Auxiliary of the Rumford Community Hospital will not meet March 6 because of town meeting. Instead they will meet at Mrs. Mary Chadbourne's home on March 13.

Miss Elizabeth Waldron has accepted a position as instructor of freshmen and sophomore English at Leavitt High School in Turner Center, and began her duties there on Monday.

Robert N. Knight, husband of Marjorie Geiger Knight of RFD 1, Bethel, reallocated in the United States Army at Bannock on Monday, Feb. 27, according to SFC Louis Lenko, Army recruiter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Knight of Lincoln.

AREA MARINES SERVING AT DA NANG, VIETNAM

Marine Private Leon L. Poland, Jr., son of Mrs. Florence H. Flag, of West Paris, and Marine Corporal Thomas Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Armand Michael, of Andover, are near Da Nang, Vietnam, as members of the first Marine Police Battalion, First Marine Division.

Personnel of the battalion provide beach and traffic control, enforce orders and regulations, and guard prisoners of war.

The military police unit also assists in providing security for the Da Nang Air Base, and conducts a vigorous civic action program aimed at helping the Vietnamese better themselves socially and economically.

grants, special gifts from organizations, and membership drive receipts, the Association has figured that if each town in Oxford County also contributed proportionate amounts as a share in public service, the work could be expanded to operate on a wider and more permanent scale. It could establish two clinic centers to be located at Stephens Memorial Hospital and Rumford Community Hospital. An experienced full-time professional staff would operate at each clinic and the supporting services of a consulting psychologist and psychiatrist would be available.

Every town in Oxford County has been approached to have this Article in its Warrant and as far as we know the budget committee have been kind enough to give this special proper space.

Oxford County is now one of the few in Maine that does not have full-time expanded services for the problems of emotional and mental illness. The need is greater than we realize. A recent survey of Oxford County indicates the real need that exists. For example, Oxford County has one of the highest rates of alcoholism in the state. Oxford County has had 18 suicides and 7 attempts fortunately not successful, in the past two years.

The Oxford County Mental Health Association has therefore, worked out a plan to expand its services. After considering available money from State Aid, Regional Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, Private trust

On the present time, the services of this Association in offering professional help to individuals and families who face emotional problems have been limited to consultations two nights a week at Rumford Hospital by a psychiatric social worker who moonlights after his regular duties in Augusta. This kind of help being made available is greatly limited under these conditions and the numbers that might be served and need to be served are turned down.

20 SECONDS WITH THE NAZARENE

Instead of allowing yourself to be so unhappy, just let your love grow as God wants it to grow; seek goodness in others, love more persons more; love them more impersonally. More unselfishly, without thought of return. The return, never fear, will take care of itself.

SEEMS LIKE POOR SUBSTITUTE

There has been much discussion lately of the mental health needs, not only of our adult population, but of our so-called teen-agers.

The theory is advanced that the teen-agers do not exist in nature; that they are physically mature but economically and socially immature; that in the old days, they were turned on their own and did not feel subject to family regimentation.

Whether this notion of lack of identification or responsibility leads youngsters to show resentment in order to build status and independence is now a question. Whether mental hospital and psychiatric treatment are the answer is another question.

Somewhere along the line our schools, colleges and parents should shoulder the job of showing young people that they have very definite responsibilities and are identified with every phase of family life and government. They can be shown that on them rests the responsibility for their own and the nation's future. In their far-ranging activities, it looks as if parents and schools have neglected the basic task of providing our youngsters with an understanding of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship.

CHECK LIGHTS FOR SAFETY—SAYS SAFETY COMMITTEE

A check of the family car's lighting system today may prevent a wreck tomorrow, according to an announcement by the Maine Highway Safety Safety Committee.

It's the wise motorist who takes time to check his rear and front lamps, and especially the turn signals. Such quick inspections should be done periodically. Breakage, and short circuits, can occur within the space of one short trip, the announcement states.

Other drivers rely on being alerted to your intentions to pass or make other maneuvers by your turn signals and brake lights. If equipment is defective, both you and the other drivers are in danger without being aware of it until it's often too late to avoid trouble.

LEARNED SERVICES

Services for Mrs. Bewie S. Learned were held from the Greenleaf funeral home, Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 22, with Rev. Clifford Laws officiating. Bearers were George Merrill, Warren M. Powers, Paul W. Wight and Bernard L. Powers. Entombment was at Riverside Cemetery with burial in the spring at the Powers Cemetery, Newry.

BETHEL AUXILIARY GIVES EQUIPMENT TO RUMFORD HOSPITAL

Bethel Auxiliary members have donated equipment at a cost in excess of $200 to Rumford Community Hospital's newest department, the 14 bed pediatric unit. This equipment includes a portable television, table and chair set, and a maple rocker for nurses to soothe the small children.

The hospital's new children's division opened last month to meet the growing needs of the community. It is entirely separate from other patient sections and is staffed around the clock with nurses and aides having special aptitudes for this assignment.

Miss Karen Bouthol, R. N., unit supervisor, a 1964 graduate of Mercy Hospital, Portland, received special training both in Washington and in California in large children's hospitals. She is highly qualified for the position as supervisor of this new unit. Miss Bouthol has weekly conferences with her personnel to teach them the special techniques of working with children.

An organized play program is being planned for the growth and development of the children and to help them enjoy their hospital stay. Placed with companions their own age, the new children's unit allows the hospital to achieve a different atmosphere more conducive to the welfare of children.

Bethel Auxiliary members are presently considering sponsorship of other pediatric needs. It has been the goal of the ladies to direct their assistance to the new-born nursery and maternity department. With the advent of the new children's unit, the community need became much greater in pediatrics. The high interest of these ladies in sponsoring projects for children has been shifted to this area.

Mr. Loubler, administrator, expressed gratitude to this active Bethel Unit of the Auxiliary for their continued efforts and support on behalf of the hospital.

Check out your vehicle today and make certain you will be well-lit and sighted, advises the Safety Committee.
